

Recognition and Remembrance Gifts to the Grand Rapids Area Library

Recognition or remembrance gifts allow you to honor a friend or loved one in a unique and meaningful way. By marking a special occasion with a gift to the library you will be recognizing the important role libraries play in people's lives.

When you make a gift, you may suggest a title, subject area or type of material you would like purchased, or you may simply ask that your contribution be used where needed the most.

A letter will be sent to the honored person or to his or her family to let them know about your thoughtful gift. A letter of acknowledgement goes to the donor as well. A bookplate will be inscribed as you designate and placed in the item, letting the community share in the recognition. We appreciate your donation at any level!
