

Recognition and Remembrance Gifts

Recognition and remembrance gifts allow donors to honor a friend or loved one in a unique and meaningful way. By marking a special occasion with a gift to the Library you will be recognizing the important role libraries play in people's lives.

When you make a gift to the Library, you may suggest a subject area or type of material you would like purchased, or you may simply ask that your contribution be used where needed the most. We appreciate your donation in any amount.
