- > Specific Activities with ICC Students of Color

The next meeting is Monday, December 5 from noon-1:30 pm at the Blandin Foundation. Meetings are the first Monday of the month, with meeting times alternating between noon-1:30 pm and 6-7:30 pm.

BIG VIEW Commissioner Moren reported the following are the next subjects.

- $\triangleright$  December 12 Topic Wellness Court will be held from 6 8 pm at the Grand Rapids Area Library.
- > December 28 will be their annual dinner and awards presentation.

OLD BUSINESS

INDIGENOUS PEOPLE'S DAY FOLLOW UP

Commissioner LaPlant reported there was money left over from the Northland Foundation Grant to order books for the Grand Rapids Library. Tracy Kampa has placed an order for native history books that will be kept at the Grand Rapids Area Library. There is also $1,000.00 that can be used toward Ojibwe Signage for City owned facility, the Civic Center. A discussion was held that since there is still funding available from the 2016 Human Rights budget we could designate to give some of the funds available to add to the money for the signage at the IRA Civic Center.

MOTION BY COMMISSIONER SCHIRBER, SECOND BY COMMISSIONER NOYCE TO APPROVE UP TO $1,500.00 FROM THE HUMAN RIGHTS BUDGET FOR OJIBWE SIGNAGE AT THE IRA CIVIC CENTER. Motion passed by unanimous vote.

"During the Indigenous People's Day "Discovering the Little Brothers" storytelling event at the Grand Rapids Area Library, an original drawing was created and was gifted to the Human Rights Commission by illustrator Luke Durand. Commissioner LaPlant had the drawing framed and submitted the receipt of $173.26 for reimbursement. The Commissioners had an initial discussion about the highest and best use of this art piece, copy of the book and the accompanying CD"

The Commission was in favor of reimbursing Commissioner LaPlant the cost of $173.26. Commissioner LaPlant will keep the print until a space is provided to put up.

Indigenous People's Day Continued

MOTION BY COMMISSIONER HALL, SECOND BY COMMISSIONERSCHIRBER TO REIMBURSE COMMISSIONER LAPLANT $173.26 FROM THE HUMAN RIGHTS BUDGET FOR THE NATIVE HISTORY ART. Motion passed by unanimous vote. Commissioner LaPlant abstained from the vote.

MEETING WITH OTHER CITY BOARDS/COMMISSIONS

A discussion was held to set up a sub-committee to discuss what the message is that we want to convey to these commissions.

MOTION BY COMMISSIONER NOYCE, SECOND BY COMMISSIONER HALL TO SET-UP A SUB-COMMITTEE INCLUDING NOYCE, LAPLANT AND HALL TO MEET AND HAVE AN OUTCOME TO DISCUSS AT THE NEXT HUMAN RIGHTS MEETING. Motion passed by unanimous vote.

NEW BUSINESS

HUMAN RIGHTS SYMPOSIUM

A discussion was held regarding reimbursing the registration fee for in person and virtual for this symposium. Commission Noyce will be attending in person on December 8. She will bring the receipt to the City to be reimbursed for the registration fee up to $110.00. Commissioner LaPlant will set up the virtual symposium for those interested, location to be determined, for a fee of $55.00, she will bring the receipt to the City for reimbursement.

MOTION BY COMMISSIONER SCHIRBER, SECOND BY COMMISSIONER LAPLANT TO REIMBURSE COMMISSIONER NOYCE THE REGISTRATION FEE UP TO $110.00 AND ALSO MAKE PAYMENT TO MN DEPT OF HUMAN RIGHTS FOR THE VIRTUAL SYMPOSIUM FOR $55.00. Motion passed by unanimous vote.

WE ARE ALL CRIMINALS

Commissioner Noyce brought up for discussion if the Commission would be interested in partnering/sponsoring with MacRostie and ICC to bring "We are all criminals" to Grand Rapids.

Commissioner Noyce reported that this would be of great value especially in the time we are in. The MacRostie has secured them for fall but no dates have been set at this time.

MOTION BY COMMISSIONER LAPLANT, SECOND BY COMMISSIONER HALL TO PARTNER/SPONSOR WITH LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS TO BRING "WE ARE ALL CRIMINALS" TO GRAND RAPIDS IN THE FALL OF 2017. MORE INFORMATION TO BECOME AVAILABLE IN THE NEAR FUTURE. Motion passed by unanimous vote.

Grand Rapids Human Rights Commission November 30, 2016 Page #4

Commissioner Noyce left at 5:15 pm.

ACTing/Racism for Grand Rapids

There was a lengthy discussion regarding racism and the future impact that could reach Grand Rapids. How do we engage the community and move forward with the truth. There is a feature with the upcoming symposium that speaks about 21st Century Policing or Islamophobia in MN. Another group that is called CAIR; Counsel on American Islamic Relations.

There is a meeting on January 24 and 25, 2017, held in Bemidji, that is called Beyond Diversity. This may be something Commissioners attend.

Window Clings

Commissioners have reported that the window clings; The City of Grand Rapids Welcomes Everyone on behalf of the Human Rights Commission has gone very well. Businesses have been very open to placing a cling on their window.

Commissioner Schirber is going to contact Mayor Adams to talk about the window clings and put together a press release for the paper. Commissioner Weidendorf will contact Heidi Holtan to put something on the radio.

Commission Moren left at 5:30 pm

Moving Meetings Along

Commissioner Weidendorf would like to address the Commission regarding the length of time the past few Board Meetings have been. In addition, because everything is of importance to everyone we need to be aware of the length of time to take on items. It would also be beneficial to limit meetings to one special guest/meeting and indicate time given.

The draft agenda will be sent out to Commissioners, as in the past, the Monday prior to the meeting and have until Wednesday to have additions/deletions so the agenda can be posted and sent out to media and Commissioners.

New Commissioners

Commissioner Schirber would like the Commissioners to tell a little about themselves when new Commissioners come on board and for them to share about themselves as well. It would help to get to know each other more. A binder is given to new members & will be given to those who do not have one.

The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 28, 2016 at 4:00 pm

The meeting adjourned at 6:30 pm

Respectfully submitted, Michele Palkki, Administrative Assistant

Pastor Doug Hardt, M.Div.

Presenter: Doug Hardt, M.Div.
Pastor of the Iron Range Seventh-day Adventist churches.

Pastor Hardt grew up in Nebraska and southern Minnesota. After he became a pastor in college he decided to go overseas and work as a missionary. He lived overseas in a predominantly Muslim part of the world for eight years working for the SDA church. Because of his experience of being a Christian in the Muslim world he ended up studying Islam and the Quran in-depth. He ended up writing a book about the religion entitled "Who Was Muhammad?" Before moving to Grand Rapids he was serving as the director for the Interfaith Studies and Culture Center at Union College in Lincoln, Nebraska.

How much do you know about Islam – the second largest religion in the world today?

Since 9/11 Islamic terrorists have received much media attention, but how much do you know about the actual religion?

How much do you know about it's 1400 year history?

How much do you know about the life of Muhammad?

How much do you know about the teachings of the Quran?

Do you know the difference between a Shi'a and a Sunni?

What area of the world has the most Muslims?

If those questions interest you then this class is for you. Pastor Doug Hardt has shortened his class on Islam that he taught at Union College in Lincoln, Nebraska into 6 one-hour presentations. Don't miss this informative class that will help you understand the current situation in the world between the West and Islam.

Topics that will be covered in the seminar:

- · The history of Muhammad
- A summary of the teachings of the Quran
- The history of the Sunni/Shi'a divide
- History of Islam with the West
- · History of Islamic terrorism
- Analysis of the current condition of Islam now

HRC Chat with other GR Boards and Commissions - Draft

Purpose: To inform other arms of Grand Rapids city government of the reasons for, functions of, and importance of the Human Rights Commission.

Outcome: All appointees to city commissions and boards will gain awareness of the role of the Human Rights Commission and how they can support and promote human rights.

Method: Rotating two-member teams of HR Commissioners to meet with 13 other city commissions and boards over several months.

Setup: Start by thanking the group for the work they do in support of the community, and for their time. If chair doesn't ask people to introduce themselves, start your presentation with introductions.

History: How many have heard of the human rights commission? The Grand Rapids Human Rights Commission was created by a city ordinance in 2004, to aid and advise the City Council in ensuring that all citizens have equal opportunity in those areas protected by law. The mission of the Commission is to promote a community of harmony and respect for the rights and dignity of all people.

Areas covered: The role of the Human Rights Commission is to encourage and promote equal opportunity and fair treatment and practices for all people. The Minnesota Human Rights Act (Minnesota Statutes 1967, Human Rights Act, Section 363.13) prohibits discrimination in education, employment, housing, public accommodations, public services, and credit services.

It is illegal to discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, status with regard to public assistance, disability, and age.

Two primary agencies support human rights commissions in Minnesota. The Minnesota Department of Human Rights, which celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2013, has the mandate to hear discrimination cases filed with the state. The Governor appoints the Human Rights Commissioner. The Commissioner since 2011 is Kevin Lindsey. Information on the Minnesota Department of Human Rights may be found at: https://mn.gov/mdhr/

In addition, the League of Human Rights Commissions, a non-profit organization dedicated to the protection and advancement of human rights, was founded in 1971 to support the work of local human rights commissions.

Work of the HRC: Human rights commissions enhance economic development efforts in the community and educate citizens about social justice concerns. They work with labor, education, civic, religious, social service, and community groups to foster understanding and to eliminate prejudice and discrimination. In order to grow, cities must be open to change, and human rights commissions help foster this climate for change. The HRC also assists the city with regard to compliance with state human rights statutes.

Other facts about the HRC: The Grand Rapids Human Rights Commission operates on a budget of $1,000 - $3,000 per year. These funds are used for print items, special events, workshop costs, or other expenses to promote the work of the volunteer commission.

The Grand Rapids HRC has worked and collaborated with several community groups to promote and advance human rights in the city, including Itasca Community College, the MacRostie Art Center, the Circle of Healing, the Grand Rapids Area Library, District 318 schools, area churches, the Chamber of Commerce, and other departments of the City of Grand Rapids.

Workshops, presentations and events include information and education about disability/accessibility issues, on-going support of the City's Indigenous People's Day and workshops about city relations with the indigenous community, Tracks in the Snow about the Minnesota Muslim Community, presentations from the Minnesota Hmong Community, the marriage amendment and other gay rights issues, homelessness and housing concerns, and ethics workshops, among others.

Visible contributions of the Human Rights Commission include Ojibwe language signage and window clings stating "The City of Grand Rapids Welcomes Everyone."
